We the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article. I

Section. 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section. 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons. The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at least one Representative; and until such Enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New-York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

Section. 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.

No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.

The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

Section. 4. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different Day.

Section. 5. Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behaviour, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

Section. 6. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

No Senator or Representative shall during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been encreased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

Section. 7. All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives, but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it become a Law, be presented to the President of the United States; If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his Objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their Journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.

Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the case of a Bill.

Section. 8. The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

To borrow Money on the credit of the United States;

To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes;

To establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization, and uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States;

To coin Money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures;

To provide for the Punishment of counterfeiting the Securities and current Coin of the United States;

To establish Post Offices and post Roads;

To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries;

To constitute Tribunals inferior to the supreme Court;

To define and punish Piracies and Felonies committed on the high Seas, and Offences against the Law of Nations;

To declare War, grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and make Rules concerning Captures on Land and Water;

To raise and support Armies, but no Appropriation of Money to that Use shall be for a longer Term than two Years;

To provide and maintain a Navy;

To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces;

To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions;

To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining, the Militia, and for governing such Part of them as may be employed in the Service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively, the Appointment of the Officers, and the Authority of training the Militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress;

To exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten Miles square) as may, by Cession of particular States, and the Acceptance of Congress, become the Seat of the Government of the United States, and to exercise like Authority over all Places purchased by the Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the same shall be, for the Erection of Forts, Magazines, Arsenals, dock-Yards, and other needful Buildings;—And

To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department or Officer thereof.

Section. 9. The Migration or Importation of such Persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the Year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a Tax or duty may be imposed on such Importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each Person.

The Privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in Cases of Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it.

No Bill of Attainder or ex post facto Law shall be passed.

No Capitation, or other direct, Tax shall be laid, unless in Proportion to the Census or Enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken.

No Tax or Duty shall be laid on Articles exported from any State.

No Preference shall be given by any Regulation of Commerce or Revenue to the Ports of one State over those of another: nor shall Vessels bound to, or from, one State, be obliged to enter, clear or pay Duties in another.

No Money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in Consequence of Appropriations made by Law; and a regular Statement and Account of the Receipts and Expenditures of all public Money shall be published from time to time.

No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State.

Section. 10. No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal; coin Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts; pass any Bill of Attainder, ex post facto Law, or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts, or grant any Title of Nobility.

No State shall, without the Consent of the Congress, lay any Imposts or Duties on Imports or Exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection Laws: and the net Produce of all Duties and Imposts, laid by any State on Imports or Exports, shall be for the Use of the Treasury of the United States; and all such Laws shall be subject to the Revision and Controul of the Congress.

No State shall, without the Consent of Congress, lay any Duty of Tonnage, keep Troops, or Ships of War in time of Peace, enter into any Agreement or Compact with another State, or with a foreign Power, or engage in War, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay.

Article. II

Section. 1. The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice President, chosen for the same Term, be elected as follows:

Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress: but no Senator or Representative, or Person holding an Office of Trust or Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

The Electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by Ballot for two Persons, of whom one at least shall not be an Inhabitant of the same State with themselves. And they shall make a List of all the Persons voted for, and of the Number of Votes for each; which List they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the Seat of the Government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall, in the Presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the Certificates, and the Votes shall then be counted. The Person having the greatest Number of Votes shall be the President, if such Number be a Majority of the whole Number of Electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such Majority, and have an equal Number of Votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately chuse by Ballot one of them for President; and if no Person have a Majority, then from the five highest on the List the said House shall in like Manner chuse the President. But in chusing the President, the Votes shall be taken by States, the Representation from each State having one Vote. A quorum for this Purpose shall consist of a Member or Members from two thirds of the States, and a Majority of all the States shall be necessary to a Choice. In every Case, after the Choice of the President, the Person having the greatest Number of Votes of the Electors shall be the Vice President. But if there should remain two or more who have equal Votes, the Senate shall chuse from them by Ballot the Vice President.

The Congress may determine the Time of chusing the Electors, and the Day on which they shall give their Votes; which Day shall be the same throughout the United States.

No Person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any Person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

In the Case of the Removal of the President from Office, or of his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.

The President shall, at stated Times, receive for his Services a Compensation, which shall neither be encreased nor diminished during the Period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that Period any other Emolument from the United States, or any of them.

Before he enter on the Execution of his Office, he shall take the following Oath or Affirmation:—"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Section. 2. The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into the actual Service of the United States; he may require the Opinion, in writing, of the principal Officer in each of the executive Departments, upon any Subject relating to the Duties of their respective Offices, and he shall have Power to grant Reprieves and Pardons for Offences against the United States, except in Cases of Impeachment.

He shall have Power, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, to make Treaties, provided two thirds of the Senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, shall appoint Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, Judges of the supreme Court, and all other Officers of the United States, whose Appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by Law: but the Congress may by Law vest the Appointment of such inferior Officers, as they think proper, in the President alone, in the Courts of Law, or in the Heads of Departments.

The President shall have Power to fill up all Vacancies that may happen during the Recess of the Senate, by granting Commissions which shall expire at the End of their next Session.

Section. 3. He shall from time to time give to the Congress Information of the State of the Union, and recommend to their Consideration such Measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary Occasions, convene both Houses, or either of them, and in Case of Disagreement between them, with Respect to the Time of Adjournment, he may adjourn them to such Time as he shall think proper; he shall receive Ambassadors and other public Ministers; he shall take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed, and shall Commission all the Officers of the United States.

Section. 4. The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanors.

Article. III.

Section. 1. The judicial Power of the United States, shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The Judges, both of the supreme and inferior Courts, shall hold their Offices during good Behaviour, and shall, at stated Times, receive for their Services a Compensation, which shall not be diminished during their Continuance in Office.

Section. 2. The judicial Power shall extend to all Cases, in Law and Equity, arising under this Constitution, the Laws of the United States, and Treaties made, or which shall be made, under their Authority;—to all Cases affecting Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls;—to all Cases of admiralty and maritime Jurisdiction;—to Controversies to which the United States shall be a Party;—to Controversies between two or more States;—between a State and Citizens of another State;—between Citizens of different States;—between Citizens of the same State claiming Lands under Grants of different States, and between a State, or the Citizens thereof, and foreign States, Citizens or Subjects.

In all Cases affecting Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, and those in which a State shall be Party, the supreme Court shall have original Jurisdiction. In all the other Cases before mentioned, the supreme Court shall have appellate Jurisdiction, both as to Law and Fact, with such Exceptions, and under such Regulations as the Congress shall make.

The Trial of all Crimes, except in Cases of Impeachment, shall be by Jury; and such Trial shall be held in the State where the said Crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any State, the Trial shall be at such Place or Places as the Congress may by Law have directed.

Section. 3. Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying War against them, or in adhering to their Enemies, giving them Aid and Comfort. No Person shall be convicted of Treason unless on the Testimony of two Witnesses to the same overt Act, or on Confession in open Court.

The Congress shall have Power to declare the Punishment of Treason, but no Attainder of Treason shall work Corruption of Blood, or Forfeiture except during the Life of the Person attainted.

Article. IV.

Section. 1. Full Faith and Credit shall be given in each State to the public Acts, Records, and judicial Proceedings of every other State. And the Congress may by general Laws prescribe the Manner in which such Acts, Records and Proceedings shall be proved, and the Effect thereof.

Section. 2. The Citizens of each State shall be entitled to all Privileges and Immunities of Citizens in the several States.

A Person charged in any State with Treason, Felony, or other Crime, who shall flee from Justice, and be found in another State, shall on Demand of the executive Authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the State having Jurisdiction of the Crime.

No Person held to Service or Labour in one State, under the Laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in Consequence of any Law or Regulation therein, be discharged from such Service or Labour, but shall be delivered up on Claim of the Party to whom such Service or Labour may be due.

New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the Jurisdiction of any other State; nor any State be formed by the Junction of two or more States, or Parts of States, without the Consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress.

The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic Violence.

Article. V.

The Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose Amendments to this Constitution, or, on the Application of the Legislatures of two thirds of the several States, shall call a Convention for proposing Amendments, which, in either Case, shall be valid to all Intents and Purposes, as Part of this Constitution, when ratified by the Legislatures of three fourths of the several States, or by Conventions in three fourths thereof, as the one or the other Mode of Ratification may be proposed by the Congress; Provided that no Amendment which may be made prior to the Year One thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any Manner affect the first and fourth Clauses in the Ninth Section of the first Article; and that no State, without its Consent, shall be deprived of its equal Suffrage in the Senate.

Article. VI.

All Debts contracted and Engagements entered into, before the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States.

Article. VII.

The Ratification of the Conventions of nine States, shall be sufficient for the Establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the same.

Amendments to the Constitution

The Conventions of a number of the States having at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added: And as extending the ground of public confidence in the Government will best ensure the beneficent ends of its institution;

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following Articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as amendments to the Constitution of the United States; all or any of which Articles, when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said Constitution, viz.

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment II

A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed.

Amendment III

No soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Amendment IV

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Amendment V

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Amendment VI

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defence.

Amendment VII

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Amendment VIII

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Amendment IX

The enumeration in the constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Amendment X

The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.

Amendment XI

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another state, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.

Amendment XII

The electors shall meet in their respective states and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate;—The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted;—The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President.—The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President, shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.

Amendment XIII

Section. 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Section. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Amendment XIV

Section. 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty one years of age in such state.

Section. 3. No person shall be a senator or representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Section. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Section. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

Amendment XV

Section. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Section. 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Amendment XVI

The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

Amendment XVII

The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, That the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the constitution.

Amendment XVIII

Section. 1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Section. 2. The Congress and the several states shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Section. 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislatures of the several states, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the Congress.

Amendment XIX

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Amendment XX

Section. 1. The terms of the President and Vice-President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of senators and representatives at noon on the 3d day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

Section. 2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Section. 3. If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice-President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice-President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice-President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice-President shall have qualified.

Section. 4. The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice-President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

Section. 5. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

Section. 6. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislatures of three fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the Congress.

Amendment XXI

Section. 1. The eighteenth article of amendment to the constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

Section. 2. The transportation or importation into any state, territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

Section. 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by conventions in the several states, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the Congress.

Amendment XXII

Section. 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President, when this article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

Section. 2. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislatures of three fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission to the states by the Congress.

Amendment XXIII

Section. 1. The district constituting the seat of government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

A number of electors of President and Vice-President equal to the whole number of senators and representatives in Congress to which the district would be entitled if it were a state, but in no event more than the least populous state; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the states, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and Vice-President, to be electors appointed by a state; and they shall meet in the district and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

Section. 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Amendment XXIV

Section. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice-President, for electors for President or Vice-President, or for senator or representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

Section. 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Amendment XXV

Section. 1. In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice-President shall become President.

Section. 2. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice-President, the President shall nominate a Vice-President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

Section. 3. Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice-President as Acting President.

Section. 4. Whenever the Vice-President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice-President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President.

Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice-President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice-President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.

Amendment XXVI

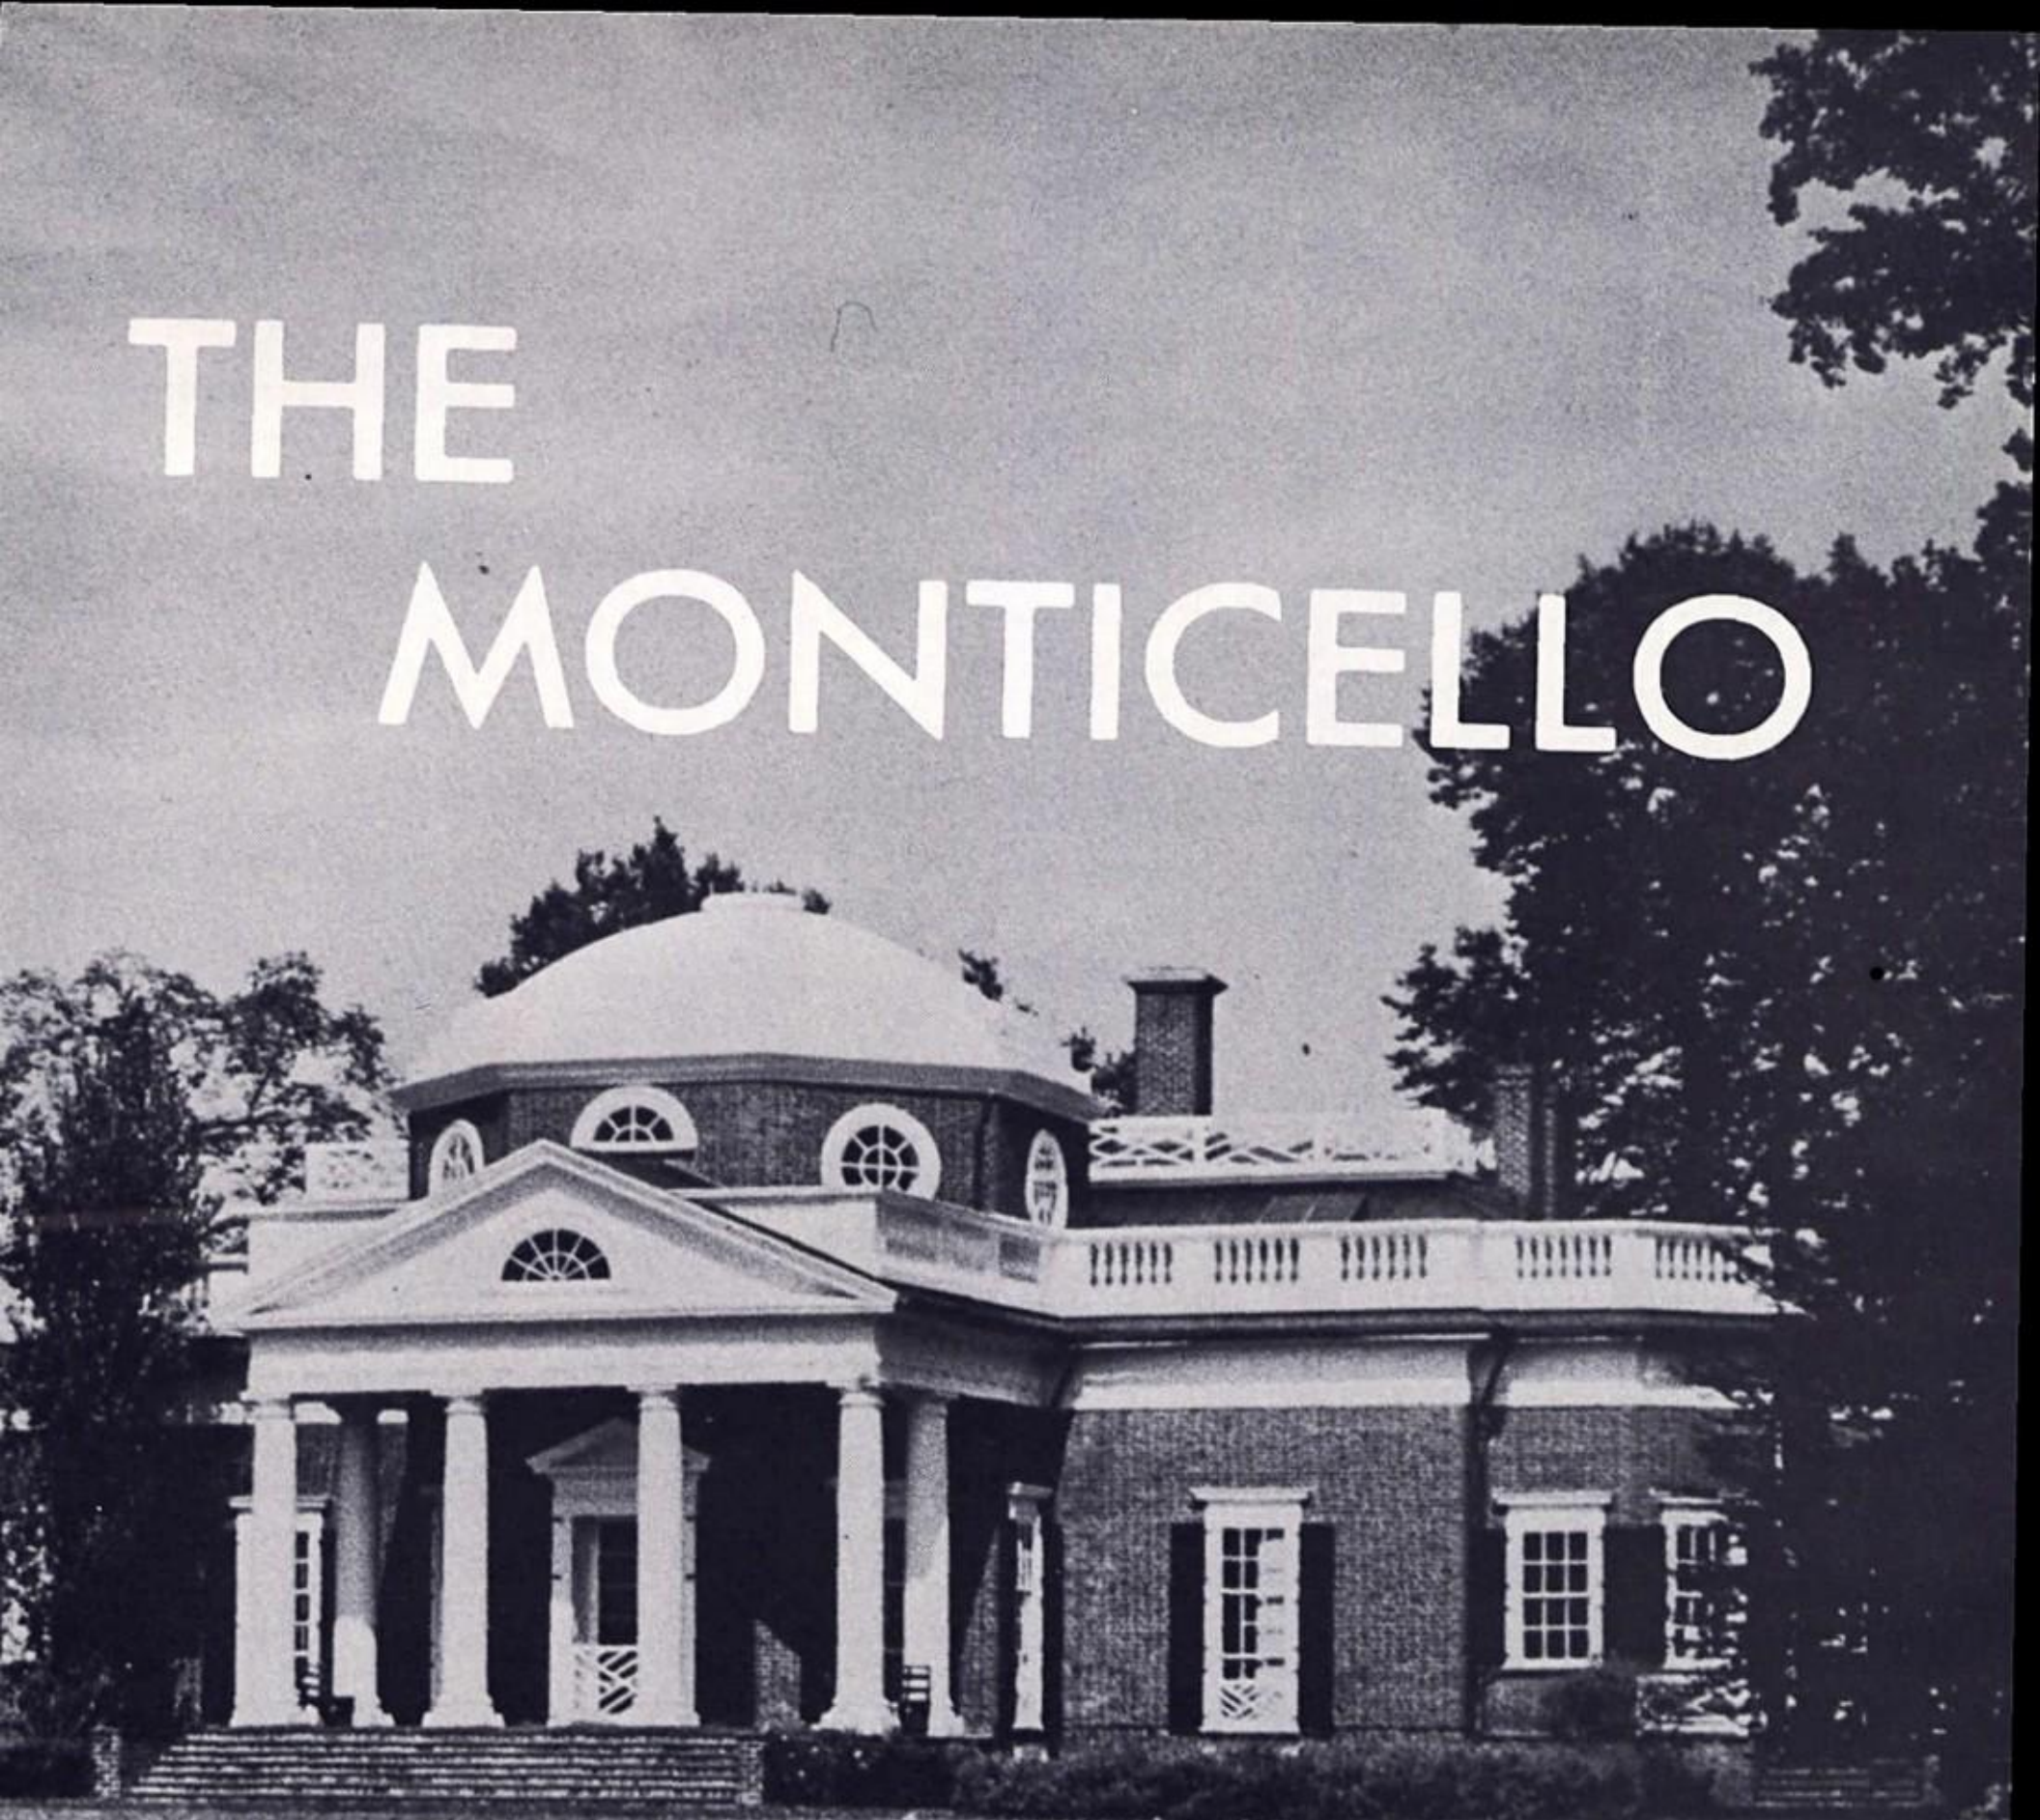
Section. 1. The right of citizens of the United States, who are eighteen years of age or older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state on account of age.

Section. 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Amendment XXVII

No law varying the compensation for the services of the senators and representatives shall take effect until an election of representatives shall have intervened.

THE MONTICELLO



Volume XLIV — 1976
Published by the Students and Faculty of Thomas Jefferson High School
Richmond, Virginia

DEDICATION:
TO MR. WILLIAM WIRT BROCK, JR.

The most parodied figure at Thomas Jefferson High School, Mr. William Wirt Brock, Jr., was born June 15, 1912, here in Richmond. In his sixty-three years, Mr. Brock has shown a great dedication to the education of youth.

Much of his work has been done here in the state. Our principal earned his B.S. degree and was graduated with honors from Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1934. Twelve years later, he earned his M.A. degree from the University of Virginia.

In the interim of his earning these degrees, he taught at John Marshall High School (1936), served five years' active duty with the United States Army in World War II, and then returned to John Marshall in 1946 as Assistant Principal and Senior Counselor. He put his military genius to work as Commandant of John Marshall's Cadet Corps.

1951 marked the end of his association with John Marshall. It was in this year that Mr. Brock was transferred to Albert H. Hill Junior High School. Finally, in 1958, Mr. Brock came as Principal to Thomas Jefferson.

In his years as chief administrator, Mr. Brock has been extremely active in school-related matters. In addition to serving on various advisory committees, he has attended a Health, Education, and Welfare seminar in Italy and The Netherlands in 1961, taken a course in the Humanities on a John Hay Fellowship in 1964, and attended an educational conference in Hawaii in 1967. He further studied independently at U. Va., VCU, VSC, and VUU.

Education has not been the only facet of Mr. Brock's life. Until 1968, he was active in the United States Army Reserve, from which he retired as a brigadier general. He served as president of the Torch Club, was chairman of the Central YMCA, and was a member of the West End Kiwanis Club. Additionally, he has been and continues to be active in a variety of church and civic activities. He enjoys a warm family life with his wife, the former Lida Stokes, his two children, William W. III, and Angier Brock Caudle, and two grandsons, all of whom reside in Richmond.

It is to this devoted leader that the 1976 MONTICELLO is dedicated. As his reign as Thomas Jefferson's principal comes to an end, those who have known him during his tenure here will realize the loss of one of the school's most inspirational personalities.

FACULTY

The Capitol building in Washington, D.C., was started in 1793. By 1800, it had been sufficiently completed so that the government could move here from Philadelphia. The completed north wing housed the House of Representatives, the Senate and the Supreme Court.

To teach students to listen, speak, read, and write foreign language was this year's main objective for the foreign language department, according to Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Brown was the head of the foreign language department for the year of 1976. Plagued by prolonged illness of Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Harris, the department overcame these obstacles and sustained the interest of the students as it always has.

Mr. Green's gestures are among his many assets as a teacher.

The science department was happy to have Miss McCall to add "New Life" to biology. She was well equipped in the sciences and was an inspiration to her classes. Calvin C. Green still tackled the hard ones.

The Physics class was small compared to last year's classes; however, the students were possibly the very best physics students ever to leave T.J.

The department expected to continue to lead the city in producing outstanding science students.

Miss Sheats' expression reinforces the answer to the student's question.

ACADEMICS

Patrick Henry, a "western upstart," gained political stature by leading a group of young liberals in Virginia's House of Burgesses. Attacking King and the Stamp Act with equal vigor, Henry presented his seven Virginia Resolves, protesting Britain's right to tax without representation.

LEARNING IS MAJOR FUNCTION AT T.J.

Academics, the major reason for which we attend Thomas Jefferson, is an integral part of the school's character. Learning here provides students with opportunities for intellectual growth and prepares them for post-secondary education. The brief pictorial collection in this section gives only an inkling of the myriad aspects of scholastic endeavor at T.J.

CLASSES

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal . . . " wrote Thomas Jefferson, chairman of the committee to draft the Declaration of Independence. The original document was presented to Congress. After minor amendments were made, the first signatures were affixed July 4, 1776.

CLASS COUNCIL SPARKS ENTHUSIASM AMONG SENIORS

The nineteen seventy-six senior class would like to extend its sincere appreciation to the faculty members for the efforts they have put forth to help the class through the years. A very special thanks goes out to Mrs. Threatts for being a terrific class advisor. Last, but not least, our thanks go to Mr. Brock, Mr. Norment, Mr. Edwards, and Mrs. Diamond for maintaining the school properly and devoting many long hours to helping the students. They will always be remembered with respect and cheerful memories.

T.J. SENIORS MAKE T.V. DEBUT

Reinstated by WWBT-TV and sponsored by Giant Food, Inc., high school bowl competition was back. Three T.J. students, Tom, Robert, and Jessica, were chosen in competition before a panel of T.V. producers. Margaret was picked as an alternate. Each taped session placed three schools in competition. A series of quarter- and semi-finals were played, leading to the final area winner. The reestablishment of this academic program showed the real dedication of students throughout the Richmond metropolitan area. T.J. was proud to be a part of it.

Tom wastes no time in practicing a favorite hobby — studying for the bowl.

"PULA" AND BETTY REIGN AS MR. AND MISS JEFF

Betty Bynum is crowned by former "Miss Jeff" Valerie Robinson.

JUNIORS JOIN WORK AND PLAY

Anticipating needs for money during both this year and next, the Junior Class, with Mrs. P. Taylor as sponsor, planned and carried out such projects as the sale of tee shirts imprinted with "77." Fun joined work during Homecoming Week when many Juniors participated in the daily activities — especially "High Water Day" and "Disguise Day" — and overwhelmingly elected Barbretta Hill as their Class Princess.

It was a brisk cold winter night for everyone at the homecoming game except for Barbretta Hill. Her night was warm and bright, for she had just been crowned Junior Princess. She ran against Miranda Lewis, Sylvia Harvey, and Gwen Brown. Showing her school spirit as the manager of the girls' track team and as a cheerleader on our squad, Barbretta also sang in her church's choir. A Libra, she was warm, affectionate, and very friendly. Through her enthusiasm for dancing, our "queen" was able to make it clear that she loved life and all its pleasures.

CLASS OF '78 LOOKS FORWARD TO SOPHOMORE YEAR

The sophomore class of '76 came to Tee Jay in the fall, full of determination and ideas for a great year. Soon after elections, they sponsored a car wash which brought many of the sophomores together, while at the same time enabling them to achieve their goal to raise money. The car wash brought them close to $85.00 which helped to boost their treasury for a successful year.

FEARLESS FRESHMEN START OFF FRESH

Freshmen elected officers early in the year. A sponsor was gained, and things got under way. The first real project of the Freshman Class was a car wash. Other fund raising projects were set by the class of '79, and their goals were reached. The freshmen were considered to be in last place by the upperclassmen, but throughout the year they showed their true Viking spirit.

STUDENT LIFE

At Valley Forge, General Washington spent long hours writing letters to Congress, pleading for badly needed supplies. Just before striking camp, he was directed by Congress to administer an oath of allegiance to his senior officers, acknowledging the independence of the United States.

T.J. LIFE CONTINUES AFTER SCHOOL HOURS

"Student Life" has the unique distinction of appearing in the MONTICELLO for the first time. Included in this section are views of students participating in activities out of school. These activities, which entertain and enrich, comprise a student's year. It is the fervent hope of the staff that these pages convey this reality.

When funds are low and city entertainment is scarce, T.J.'ers meet at a party.

ABOVE RIGHT: Sasa Kaleva and Murray Howard, going out on a Friday night, represent a favorite T.J. pastime — dating.
RIGHT: Movies are a big source of entertainment for T.J.'ers.

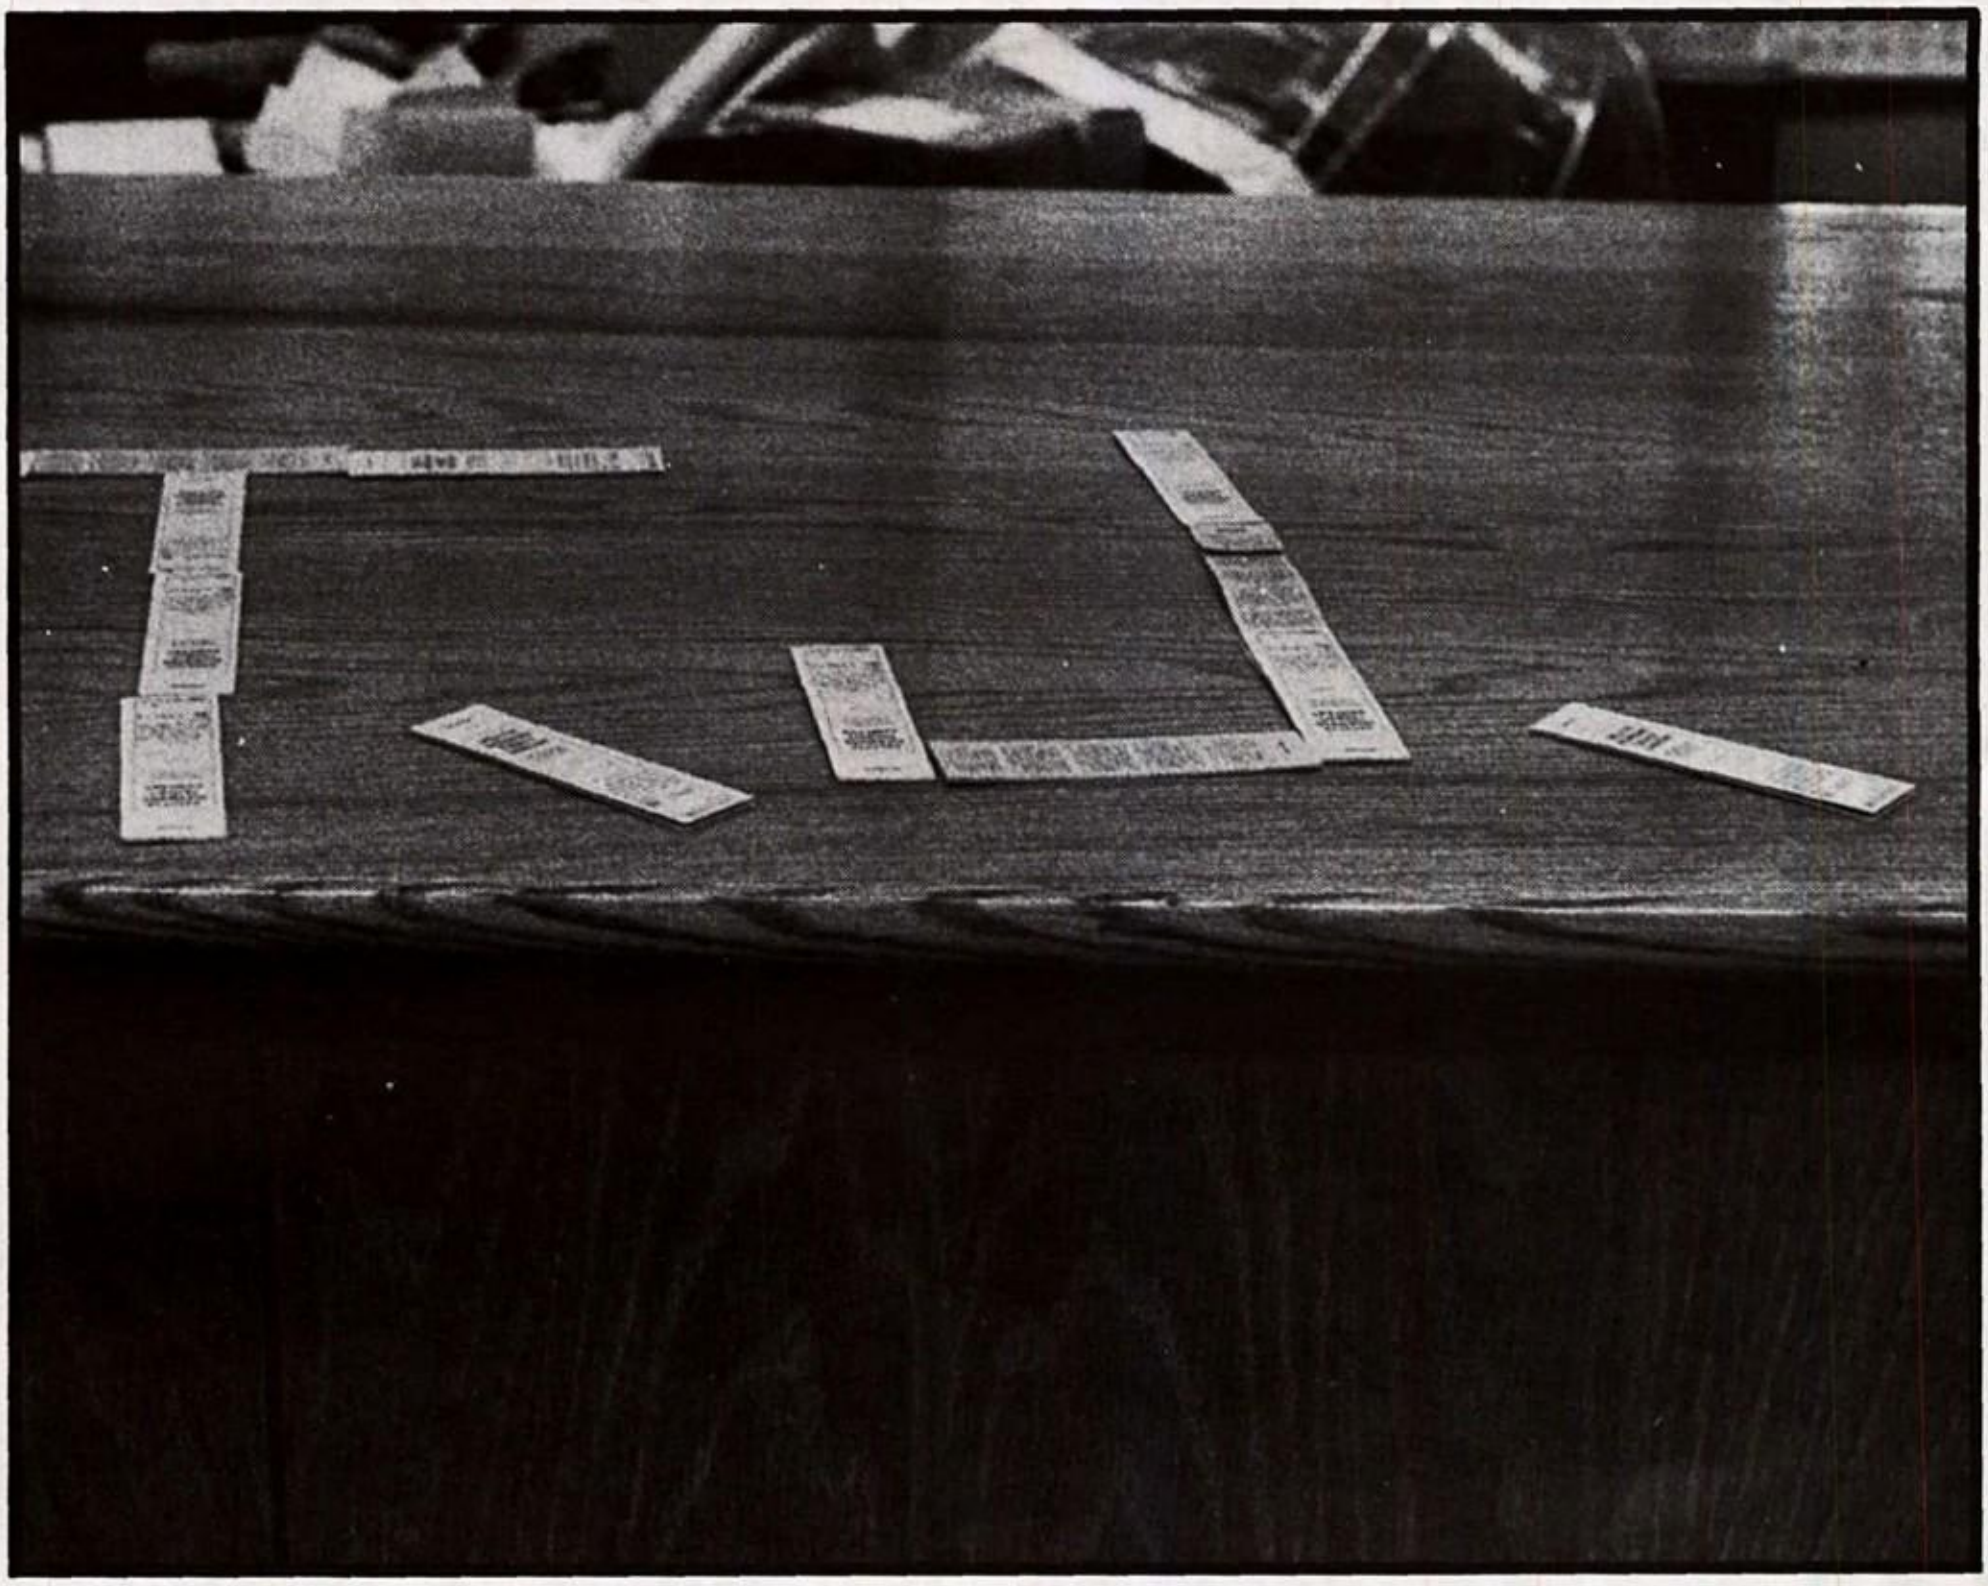
ABOVE: Rita Henderson enters church for Sunday morning Worship Service.



ACTIVITIES

News of the signing of the Declaration of Independence spread from Philadelphia's Independence Hall throughout the colonies. Jubilant crowds gathered and armies paraded. The patriots had sought a new nation, with "full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, and establish Commerce."

VIKINGS CONQUER CAPITAL DISTRICT TITLE

Striving and competing, a goal to cross or a point to score, the shouting and the tumult that never die, were like shadows that beckoned us on. But the desire to win never overshadowed the deep solid T.J. traditions of loyalty, sportsmanship, and physical developments. The sweet shadows of victory outlasted the bitter shadows of defeat, and so stood the tall shadows of THE MIGHTY VIKINGS.

Co-Captains Gary Falden and Bert Allen think about their team's performance.

Center, Donnie Stratton, gets the game under way with a vigorous kick.

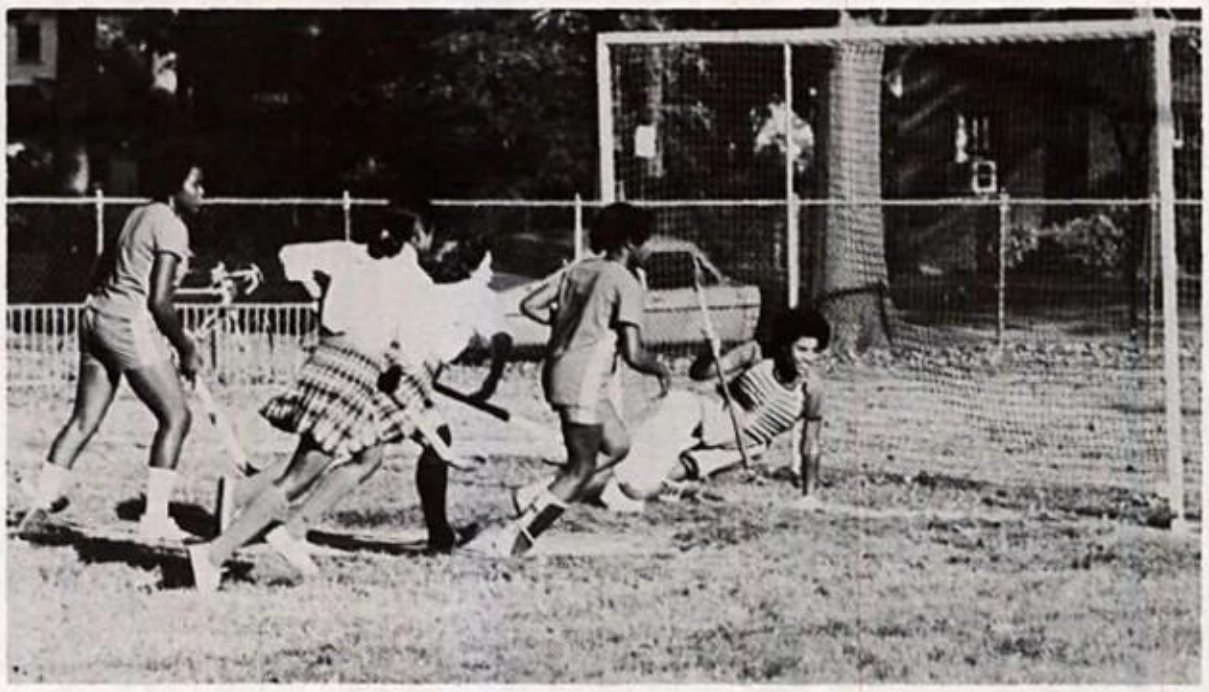
Tailback, James Sutton, struggles for yardage.

Reserve quarterback, Bennie Turpin, hands the ball off to Douglas Cheatham against JFK.

HOCKEY TEAM DISPLAYS PERSEVERANCE

The Hockey Team had an enjoyable and exciting 1975-76 season. The team's record, though not outstanding, by no means indicated the quality of play that the girls exhibited throughout the year. The team had a very good forward line; however, the defense was super. All of the games were lost by one point with the exception of the Wythe games. All of this year's seniors, Debra Brown, Beth Meisel, Randy Penn, and Wanda Waldrop contributed a lot of needed experience and skill to the team.



Laura Popkins, with the aid of Diane Hewlett, makes a successful goal for the Vikings.

Forwards Sylvia Mason and Randy Penn attempt a joint play to seize possession of the ball.

Co-captain Wanda Waldrop struggles to change the direction of the ball.

Viking sprinters, Sophomore Kevin Singleton, Senior Brent Evans (Co-Captain), and Freshman Billy Butts, dominate the boards.

Frank Mack follows Valentino Robinson to a hurdle victory.

Victor Williams wins Feature 600 at Richmond Coliseum.

VIKING SUPERGALS: "ROUTINE EXCELLENCE"

Dominating district and regional track competition for the third consecutive year as if it were a matter of destiny, the Viking supergals sprinted to State and National prominence during the 1976 outdoor season. Led by an outstanding group of runners, including the District and Regional Record holders in every running event contested, the Vikings swept to their third undefeated season in dual-meet competition.

YOUNG VIKINGS STAR IN REBUILDING YEAR

Managers James Harris and Moses Gayles read final workout times to tired middle-distance runners.

Co-Captains David Benson and Brent Evans discuss workout with Coach Holdren.

With only a handful of upperclassmen returning from the 1975 squad, the boys' team faced a rebuilding year in 1976. The ninth and tenth graders saddled with this responsibility were not satisfied with predictions of future success, however, and under the leadership of senior Co-Captains Dave Benson and Brent Evans, stunned many of their older, more experienced, competitors with surprising victories.

Distance star Robert Logan aids teammates Harold Evans, Charles Edwards, Chris Dillon, Will Scott, and Everett Brewer in interval workout.

Sprint stars Marvin Strother, Billy Butts, Kevin Singleton, and Brent Evans drive from the blocks.

The mighty Viking basketball team was picked to start off the season as an underdog team, but the team compiled a record that was as impressive as that of any previous year. There were many standouts this year including Co-Captains Victor Harris and Chris Smith, William Bradley, Michael Perry, and Lamont Knight. The 1976 Viking team finished the season with an overall 16-5 record and 10-2 in the Capital District. The Mighty Vikings remained "Mighty."

The opponent's mistake aids T.J., as Kenneth Thompson scores from the free throw line.

SPORTSMANSHIP AND PERFORMANCE MARK YEAR

This year's basketball season was an enjoyable one for the girls' team. Though the record wasn't as good as was hoped for, the girls worked hard and looked forward to a better season next year. Cathy Green, Tanya Hill, Jeanette Littleton and Wanda Waldrop all contributed a good sportsmanlike attitude as well as performance.

VIKING SKILL LEADS TO V.S.L. WIN

The Viking soccer team played an outstanding season, finishing with a record of 12-1-1, which made them eligible for the Virginia Soccer League tournaments. With skillful and determined players, such as Stephen Candler, Bryan Kocen, John McGinnis, Charles Watkins, Abe Shocket, Ricky Jones, Steve Clatterbuck, Donnie Stratton, and Warren Pierce, T.J. became the number one soccer team in the state for 1976. The Viking soccer team definitely proved its true ability, as well as showing the spirit of Thomas Jefferson High School.

J.V. SOCCER DISPLAYS DETERMINATION

Rusty Quynn gets ready to kick the ball.

David Johnson makes obvious his control over the ball.

With speed and determination, Chuck Richardson advances down the field.

Harold Kelly dribbles the ball down the field.

Jack Randolph prepares to pass the ball to teammate Rusty Rosner.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL TEAM SHOWS SPIRIT

In their second year of formation, the girls' softball team has instituted a motto as part of their team spirit: "A good winner is also a good loser; win or lose, we'll fight to the end." The 1976 team did fight strongly this year, aided by such factors as an optimistic outlook and returning players Deborah Morgan, Debra Whittes, Patrice Inge, Darlene Miles, and Justine Allen.

Deborah Morgan, Captain, slams the ball across the plate and into the outfield.

Cynthia Walker quickly leaps to get possession of the ball.

Beverly Gordon, a fine hitter, swiftly makes it back to home plate.

Pat Neidermayer practices keeping her eye on the ball.

Coach G. Lewis instructs her team as Patrice Inge and April Fisher observe the situation.

Taking her turn at bat, Frances Booker hits the ball.

BASEBALL TEAM STRESSES SPORTSMANSHIP

Junior Co-Captain Craig Carter and Senior Co-Captain Charlie Watkins really sparked up the 1976 baseball team this year. They were a big key to the strong infield defense, as were veterans Donnie Stratton, Charles Scott, Curtis Miller, Richard McGrath, Keith Harrison, Tony Thorne, Christopher Jackson, and Carlton Day. All of these experienced players, along with some new additions this year, comprised a strong and unified team.

Coaches Battle and Atkinson congratulate each other on a fine team.

Russell Nash delivers the ball to his opposition.

GIRLS DEFEND '75 TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

The girls' tennis team posted a 10-0 District record in 1975 and were looking toward many of the promising freshmen and sophomores, so that they could repeat a championship. The 1976 edition of the netwomen had three very able returning players — Gail Caleb, Rita Henderson and Carolyn Richardson.

KNEELING: Gail Caleb, Carolyn Richardson. STANDING: Rita Henderson, Lori Hunter, Laura Popkins, Mrs. G. Dickens.

Coach Dickens gives understanding and aid to Carolyn Richardson.

The girls' tennis team avidly listens to Coach Dickens explain the game's strategy.

Carolyn Richardson puts the ball into play as Rita Henderson concentrates on her opponent's moves.

Laura Popkins looks on as Lori Hunter gives Carolyn Richardson a helping hand and some helpful hints.

Get It Where Your Dad Got It.

The age of the big band and the hip flask was an age of elegance indeed. The age when Gatsby lived life to its fullest.

Twas' an age, too, when the Tux was frequent attire. And all of Richmond turned to the Groom's Corner in times of formal importance.

But the past lives on and, today, The Groom's Corner offers still those styles Gatsby wore so well.

Allow the Groom's Corner to assist you with Spring's formal functions. After all, if we helped your Dad with it, we can help you with it, too.

This gift was embodied in a mythical ring belonging to a hero, Ogier the Dane. Ogier's ring not only removed the wearer's infirmities; it also restored his youth. Try your Balfour class ring 50 years from now. Maybe it can do the same.

patrons

For the first time in the history of the MONTICELLO, the entire senior section is in color. It is to the generosity of the patrons, and to a few diligent students, that we owe this occurrence.

They tried several methods —

Select students were given the opportunity to raise money.

first, the soft-sell approach,

then incessant nagging and, when all else failed, . . .

out and out threatening.

They persevered, though, and the results can be seen in the senior section.

Patrons of the MONTICELLO, we salute you.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The staff of the 1976 MONTICELLO would like to take this opportunity to say "thank you" to the following people:

Mr. William W. Brock, Jr., for his never-ending support of the MONTICELLO.

Mr. Morgan Edwards and Mr. Russell Norment, for their assistance in helping to set up pictures.

The Faculty, for allowing us to interrupt their classes for pictures.

Mr. Grover C. Hailey, for his patience and his willingness to let us use his equipment.

Mr. Bob Willis and Mrs. Dale Hall, for allowing us to spend time typing in the Distributive Education office.

Mr. Danny DeFalco, the Taylor Publishing Company Representative, for his assistance and encouragement in completing this year's MONTICELLO.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ware, for permitting Robert to do hours of work at home.

The Booster Club, for their generous moral and financial support in helping us to increase the size of the sports section.

The Students, for their cooperation in getting pictures taken and their support in sales.

Mrs. Hancock, for allowing us to use her residence for picture development and printing.

Art Work on the Theme Pages . . . . . Miss Franel Zacharias

At Thomas Jefferson High School, people from all walks of life come together for one common goal — education. Whether or not the students capitalize on the chance to develop meaningful relationships as well as the opportunity to attain intellectual advancement is entirely in their hands. These decisions, right or wrong, come to have a lasting effect on their lives and on the lives of the ones they love best.

No Bill of Attainder or ex post facto Law shall be passed.

No Capitation, or other direct, Tax shall be laid, unless in Proportion to the Census or Enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

No Tax or Duty shall be laid on Articles exported from any State.

No Preference shall be given by any Regulation of Commerce or Revenue to the Ports of one State over those of another: nor shall Vessels bound to, or from, one State be obliged to enter, clear or pay Duties in another.

No Money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in Consequence of Appropriations made by Law, and a regular Statement and Account of the Receipts and Expenditures of all public Money shall be published from time to time.

No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever from any King, Prince, or foreign State.

Section 10. No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal; coin Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts; pass any Bill of Attainder, ex post facto Law, or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts, or grant any Title of Nobility.

No State shall, without the Consent of Congress, lay any Imposts or Duties on Imports or Exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection Laws: and the net Produce of all Duties and Imposts, laid by any State on Imports or Exports, shall be for the Use of the Treasury of the United States; and all such Laws shall be subject to the Revision and Controul of the Congress.

No State shall, without the Consent of Congress, lay any Duty of Tonnage, keep Troops, or Ships of War in time of Peace, enter into any Agreement or Compact with another State, or with a foreign Power, or engage in War, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of Delay.

Article. VI.

All Debts contracted and Engagements entered into, before the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States.

Article. VII.

The Ratification of the Conventions of nine States, shall be sufficient for the Establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the Same.

The Word, "the", being interlined between the seventh and eighth Lines of the first Page, The Word "Thirty" being partly written on an Erazure in the fifteenth Line of the first Page, The Words "is tried" being interlined between the thirty second and thirty third Lines of the first Page and the Word "the" being interlined between the forty third and forty fourth Lines of the second Page.

Attest William Jackson Secretary

Done in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the States present the Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven and of the Independance of the United States of America the Twelfth In Witness whereof We have hereunto subscribed our Names,
